Contents for ESQ, Volume 34, 1988

No. 1 & 2 (1st & 2nd Quarters) Nos. 130 & 131 o.s.

Sarah Wider

What Did the Minister Mean:
Emerson's Sermons and Their Audience 1

Robert D. Richardson Jr.

Emerson's Sicily: History and Origins 23

Robert E. Burkholder

The Radical Emerson:
Politics in "The American Scholar" 37

Martin Bickman

"The Turn of His Sentences":
The Open Form of Emerson's Essays: First Series 59

Michael Lopez

De-Transcendentalizing Emerson 77

Contributors 140

No. 3 (3rd Quarter) No. 132 o.s.

Carolyn L. Karcher

From Pacifism to Armed Struggle:
L. M. Child's "The Kansas Emigrants"
and Antislavery Ideology in the 1850s 141

Sam Worley

Army Life in a Black Regiment and Reconstruction 159

Karen Oakes

Welcome and Beware: The Reader and Emily Dickinson's Figurative Language 181

Michael P. Kramer

The Study of Language and the American Renaissance: An Essay in Literary Historiography, Part I 207

Contributors 228

No. 4 (4th Quarter) No. 133 o.s.

David W. Hill

God, Wolf, and Law: Emerson's Indeterminant "Fate" 229

Jonathan Cook

Melville's Man in Gold Sleeve Buttons: Chief Justice Lemuel Shaw 257

Michael P. Kramer

The Study of Language and the American Renaissance: An Essay in Literary Historiography, Part II 282

Contributors 308